(5) HAC text has been added to each online user guide for every Sprint/Nextel handset that has been granted as HAC compliant by FCC.　The SCP-200 has the M3 icon on the box and HAC text is included in the SCP-200 and SCP-2300 user guide in both hard copy in boxes at the point of sale, and soft copy is available for download on the Sprint/Nextel website for all models.　The HAC icon and texts will be printed on the original device box and user guides for new models, SCP-3100, SCP-2400 and SCP-8400.　　When SCP-3100 and SCP-2400 are "T"-rated in the near future, a "running change" including HAC text and icon will be to user guides and boxes newly printed for the new production run.

(6) Sanyo has not been directly involved in outreach efforts.　Sprint/Nextel is the primary US domestic wireless carrier offering Sanyo wireless telephone devices at this time. Sprint/Nextel is working directly with the ATIS Incubator Solutions Program 4, Hearing Aid Compatibility Incubator.　They are directly involved with the working groups tasked with consumer outreach.　They also have HAC outreach information available on their website, as well as documentation and training available to sales associates in their retail stores.

(7) The Sanyo SCP-200, SCP-2300, SCP-3100 and SCP-5600 handsets have all been granted as being HAC compliant, and are all available through Sprint retail sales channel and the SCP-2400 and SCP-8400 will be available through Sprint retail sales channel after June 2006.

(8) We are developing two new cellular phones (SCP-3100 and SCP-2400, M3-rated), which incorporate T-coil features in compliance with ANSI 63.19 standard. We conducted preliminary testing with these two models already.

(9) As soon as the FCC standard is fixed, we will perform "T" rating testing at the PCTEST Engineering Laboratory, Inc. and apply for an FCC grant in compliance with the U3T standard before September 2006.

(10) The number of compliant handset model: six models
   SCP-5600, SCP-200, SCP-2300, SCP-3100, SCP-2400, SCP-8400
   The number of non-compliant handset models offered in the US: three models
   SCP-4930, SCP-8300, SCP-7500

(11) Sanyo is not directly involved in any ongoing efforts for interoperability testing with hearing aid devices at this time.
